

Dear Second Grade Parents of VOICE,

We cordially invite you to attend the Queens Public Charter Schools Civic Teach In on Friday, March 19, 2010 from 10am to noon at Queens College. Our goal is share, educate and inform attendees about our schools' efforts to provide an excellent education for the children of Queens.

On March 19th, parents, students, alumni and staff from several schools will come together as a community to share our experiences and the educational programs of our K-12, public charter schools. We will celebrate the world famous diversity of Queens and showcase several of our talented youngsters who will perform for the assembled audience of respected community members, elected officials, parents, students, educators and the press. Scheduled to perform or present are members of the VOICE Charter School 2nd grade prep choir in Long Island City, the African drumming troupe from OWN Charter School in Astoria, a jazz-rock trio from the Renaissance Charter School in Jackson Heights and a presentation on science and the singing of the green theme song by the Growing Up Green Charter School in Long Island City.

There are twenty (20) seats available on the bus to this event for parents who would like to attend. The bus will leave from VOICE at 9:15am so please arrive at 9:00 AM. Additional parents may go directly to the event if they are driving but they must RSVP, as seating is limited.

Please return the slip below or contact me directly to reserve your seat(s) for the concert and or the bus.

Please return this portion in your child's home folder
